

K-LOVE is very very important in our family and our community. It is the only station that our family listens to. It brings good Christian values and music to our community. It is would be displaced, there is not another good Christian contemporary music station for all ages to enjoy!